CPCCOHS1001A "Work Safely in the Construction Industry"

STATUTORY DECLARATION INFORMATION AND STUDENT IDENTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

As a Registered Training Organisation (RTO), Abacus Training has specific obligations in respect to establishing the following:

- Proof that the participant undertook the course of instruction
- The works submitted are that of the Identified Participant; and
- That the works and assessments were undertaken and completed without the assistance of a third party other than the trainer or facilitator of the course.

A copy of these conditions is available upon request.

What Does This Mean To You as An Abacus Training Student?

We have developed this Identification Checklist and Statutory Declaration which will assist you in collecting the information required to satisfy the conditions listed above.

To meet the requirements you will need to:

1. Complete all sections of the Statutory Declaration provided and 'Take and Declare' in the presence of a Justice of the Peace, a Commissioner of Declarations or a Legal Practitioner.
2. Have your required identification documents certified by the JP, Commissioner or Legal Practitioner.
3. Have a witness that will declare that they observed you as the applicant undertake the assessment, the means by which the assessment was undertaken and the date, time and location of the assessment.
4. Sign in the 'signature block' as provided in the presence of the JP, Commissioner or Legal Practitioner.
5. Return all the completed documentation to Abacus Training at 57 Pascoe Road, Ormeau, Queensland, 4208.

The Statutory Declaration and the Checklist are downloadable from our website.

The Statutory Declaration is prepared in accordance with Part 4 of the Oaths Act 1867.
